

FARMERS' DAY IN GETTYSBURG SUCCESS FROM START TO FINISH

More Than Ten Thousand Persons Joined In Making Holiday
Most Elaborate Ever Staged in Adams County.

NOT A FLAW TO MAR DAY OF PLEASURE FOR FARMERS

Parade Included American Legion Detachment, Bands, Costumed Figures, Tank, Motorized Battery, Decorated Wagons, Machines Bearing Political Aspirants And Lodge Representations.

From the opening of the exhibits at 9 o'clock in the morning until the last note of the College Jazz Orchestra died away at 11:30 Thursday night, Farmers' Day was an unqualified success. It was a holiday that will long be remembered by the ten thousand persons who came here early and stayed until late. No other event in the past approached the high standard reached this year.

There was not a hitch in the long line of events to mar the pleasure of the throngs of sightseers. All day there was a continuous stream of humanity flowing through the streets. They usually started with the State Agriculture Department Exhibit at the Peckman and Ott garage and from there found their way through the stores, each one of which had offered prizes for farm, garden and kitchen products. The motorized battery and the World War relic display at the Court House were taken in by the crowds and even the Annie M. Warner Hospital at the southern end of town was not forgotten.

There was not a single detail overlooked by the six committees who were in charge of the arrangements and many were the compliments received by members of the Chamber of Commerce who took the initiative in perfecting the Farmers' Day organization. They were supported unanimously by the business men of town.

Largest Parade
The parade, the largest and most feature filled in the history of Farmers' Days in Gettysburg lived up to the expectations of the thousands who gathered along the sidewalks to view it.

Bands, patriotic displays, grotesque figures, political aspirants, a genuine overseas tank, motorized battery of the United States Army and military looking figures on horse back, were all included in the procession which aroused favorable comment from every side.

Chief Marshall William B. McIlhenny and his aides, Clifford Bream and Harry Carbaugh headed the procession on horseback closely followed by the Gettysburg Citizens band.

Next in line were fifty one members of the American Legion posts of Adams county, including a squad of soldiers and sailors bearing aloft a beautiful American ensign and the new standard of the Albert Lentz post.

Motorized Battery
The Wensville band marched between soldiers of the past—the American Legion delegation—and soldiers of the present—the officers and men of the Eighty-Third Field Artillery, "Pennsylvania's Own," who courteously accepted the invitation of Gettysburg's Chamber of Commerce to remain here for the procession. Four field pieces drawn by a tractor, a recruiting wagon, and the automobile of the officers composed the representation from the Eighty-Third which was followed by another implement of the war—the tank—always an attention attractor as it bumped and rumbled over the streets.

Gettysburg Knights of the Mystic Chain, York Springs band, and eight automobiles including one carrying the Republican elephant and candidates for office were followed by the Gettysburg College band and seventy five members of the student body emitting yells for Farmers' Day en route.

Next came the display automobiles and the Bendersville band leading the Democratic candidates, the "rooster wagon," and the Gettysburg Fire Company. Teams and a Ford loaded with twenty six boys ended the procession.

The prize winners in the parade were as follows:

Fifteen dollars for the best float, George Motter, Littlestown; $10 second prize, Arthur Buehler, Gettysburg.

Mummers Club, ten men or more, won by Ancient Order Knights of Mystic Chain, of Gettysburg, $10;

second prize of $5 to Gettysburg College students.

Pony team prize won by Louise Ramer, Second, Dorothy Tatem. Ten dollars, four horse draft team prize, won by J. B. Zimmerman. Two horse draft team prize for same amount won by John N. Weaver.

Judges Worked Hard

While the thousands were having a good time, there was one group of men and women that worked hard all day. They were the judges of the hundreds of exhibits. They had the hardest job any judges ever had at a Farmers' Day here but they worked from ten in the morning until six at night when they finally awarded the $48 prize of the Adams County Hardware to C. Arthur Griest.

The following is the list of judges: Pastry, bread and candy, Mrs. Frank Kerr, Mrs. William Bigham, Mrs. John C. Bream, of Gettysburg, and Mrs. Kebl, Fairfield.

Parade: C. W. Gardner, Fred Griest, W. C. Tyson, Newton Gottshall.

Horses and teams: George Lynch and Robert Bream.

Efficient Policing

That there were no accidents of serious consequences on the crowded streets was due entirely to the efficient work of borough and state officers and members of the local troop of Boy Scouts.

Charles H. Wilson, First Ward constable, Charles A. Fox, local policeman, constituted the town force; Corporal Joseph Merrifield, Corporal George Smith, Privates William Lewis and Charles Conrad, the state police force; and Paul Dougherty, Harry Aumen, Sylvester McKendrick, Frank Gardner, Alvin Heiges, Glen Stouffer, Wilbur Moser, William Gilbert, Theodore Veiner, Arthur Musselman, Joe Lestz, Raymond Wisler, Edgar Markley, Harold Thomas, Jerry Ziegler, and Ross Koons, the Boy Scouts.

A minor accident such as an automobile driver running into a Centre Square rope and smashing his windshield was practically the only thing to cause unusual commotion on the street during the day.

End of a Perfect Day

That popular selection entitled "The End of a Perfect Day" would have been a most appropriate selection for the home waltz of the block dance, the last of the many and varied events of Farmers' Day.

Chambersburg street between Center Square and Washington street was jammed and packed with an estimated crowd of three thousand persons who watched over two hundred couples dance to the music furnished by William Lauver's jazz orchestra from college.

So thoroughly did the huge crowd enjoy the event that midnight was not far distant when the strains of the orchestra ceased and the spectators gradually disappeared.

DARING FEATS OF GARDINER THRILL VAST CROWDS

"Human Fly", American Legion Attraction, Draws Audience of Thousands.

CORNICE NO OBSTACLE

"Super-Man" Mounts to Roof of First National Bank Building With Ease. Exhibition Appreciated.

Center Square was packed with a silent multitude of over six thousand persons.

Every eye was looking upward watching a human figure as it scrambled up the face of the First National Bank building under the searching rays of a powerful light.

The human figure that rose steadily, spider-like, was Harry H. Gardiner, known from coast to coast and from lakes to gulf as "The Human Fly."

Now he had reached the top story. Below him was a drop to death; on either side, sheer wall; above, a cornice.

The Crowd Gasped

A moment's hesitation, then—He leaned backward and stood upward in the same movement, gripped the edge of the cornice and let his body hang down straight.

The crowd gasped.

Now the limp body began to swing, back and forth, back and forth, like a pendulum, rising higher, higher at each sweep. Suddenly its motion seemed strangely accelerated, a second time it swung, and then—the feet shot straight out, the heels reached up to and rested on the cornice and held tight.

A moment's wait and then the body seemed shaken with short quick convulsions—as if it were shot through and through with a powerful electric current. But at each convulsion the heels moved farther from the point where the finger-tips gripped hard until, in another moment, the body was almost straight. The head and shoulders rose, pulled up by the powerful arms, the trunk of the body rolled upward and over, the left hand shot still higher up and gripped a crevice in the wall.

Over The Cornice

And there was Harry Gardiner standing upright on the cornice.

A few moments rest—before the crowd ceased to marvel at the wonderful ascent—and the "Human Fly" commenced a descent of the building, more hazardous and difficult a feat than the first.

Simultaneously with the climber's arrival in safety upon the ledge above the bank entrance came forth an audible sigh from the vast crowd below and then a mighty shout and hand clapping in appreciation of the marvelous feat they had witnessed.

THOUSANDS SAW NEW HOSPITAL

Marvelled at Beauty And Completeness of County Institution.

SOON READY FOR PATIENTS

Beds Made Up And in Place. Every Room Open Thursday. Fruit And Vegetables Attract Visitors.

More than four thousand persons paid their first visit to the Annie M. Warner Hospital Thursday and marvelled at the completeness and beauty of the institution that has been established for the residents of Adams county. From the middle of the morning when the crowd began to arrive in town until dark a continuous stream of men and women passed through the building to glimpse at the work that has been done.

Members of the Gettysburg Auxiliary of the Hospital who labored all week to collect the food donations were on duty all day to guide the visitors through the various wards, the operating room, kitchen and supply room where the quantities of food are stored. There was not on who did not commend the women, directors and others who have raised the funds, purchased the equipment and installed it.

Contributed Money

One hundred dollars were contributed by the visitors at the hospital and a larger sum was collected from the tag day conducted by the Wednesday club for the hospital. Of the $100 received at the hospital, $13 was sent in by Mt. Hope United Brethren Sunday School.

Visitors as they came through the front entrance were directed to the spacious men's ward at the southern end of the building and from there to the private rooms and operating department where the operating table, etherizing and sterilizing rooms are located. On the second floor is the women's ward and more private rooms. The nurses rest room, quarters, diet kitchen and receiving lobby are located on the first floor.

While the hospital is not quite ready to receive patients to the casual observer nothing was lacking. Every bed was in place and made up and on each dresser stood a fresh bouquet of flowers.

The operating section of the building, with the tables and other equipment.

LEGION MADE MONEY

Generosity of People Yielded $755 For Treasury.

That the generosity of Adams county people during the Liberty Loan, Salvation Army drives and other war campaigns was merely an indication of their general attitude toward worthy causes was demonstrated on Farmers' Day by the amount of money taken in by the American Legion. Although the Albert Lentz post paid Harry H. Gardiner, the "Human Fly," an exceedingly large guarantee for his two performances here they were able to clear the sum of $470 for their own treasury.

In addition to the $470 derived from the exhibitions of Mr. Gardiner the Legion men made $275 by chancing off their lamp and were presented with $10 by David J. Forney, owner of the National garage.

On the whole Farmers' Day was the biggest, from a financial viewpoint, in the history of the Albert Lentz post.

He was a charter member of the Knights of Pythias at Arendtsville which was founded in 1872 and was one of the most active members of the Arendtsville Reformed church. At various times he held the office of deacon, elder and trustee in the church. He was widely known throughout the upper end of the county. "Smiling Jim" Bryan Archibald, of Chambersburg, one of the best known World War heroes in this part of the State, was a visitor in Gettysburg Thursday. "Smiling Jim" got his cognomen for the heroic spirit he displayed during twenty operations he underwent when both legs were amputated after he had been severely wounded in France.

During his long hospital confinement Archibald gained a national reputation through the newspapers for his sunny disposition through his many operations. After being wounded, Archibald laid on the battlefield three days before being discovered. Wounds in one leg have never healed. Despite his handicap, "Smiling Jim" drives his own car and is still as happy as ever.

STUDENT WANTED FOR MURDER GONE

Police, However, Believe University Freshman Will Be Found Soon.

EVIDENCE POINTS TO HIM

Poses Searching Three Counties For Remnants of Bandits Who Robbed Bank Near Cleveland.

(By Associated Press)

Philadelphia, Oct. 22.—A nationwide search was instituted today for William P. Brines, the University of Pennsylvania Freshman, for whom a warrant was issued yesterday charging him with the murder of Elmer C. Drewes, the Dartmouth College student slain here last Saturday night. The young men were said by the police to have been close friends.

Although the authorities admitted they have discovered no motive for the killing they declared they have "a large quantity of evidence" that directly points to Brines as being responsible for the death of Drewes. One theory of the police is that he was killed in a dispute over the purchase of an automobile.

The police believe the student is in or near the city and will be found within twenty four hours, if he does not voluntarily surrender. "We do not believe young Brines killed Elmer," said a member of the Drewes family today. "The boys were almost inseparable companions. We are too Christian a people even to think Brines had anything to do with it."

Hunt Desperadoes

Cleveland, Oct. 22.—Three counties were searched by posses today for the remnants of a bandit gang who late yesterday engaged in one of the most spectacular bank robberies in Ohio. Amid volleys of bullets that resembled a machine gun engagement one bandit, Albert W. Joyce, who had numerous aliases, was killed and three others, including George "Jiggs" Losteiner, wanted for two murders and numerous robberies were wounded and captured after three men held up and robbed the branch bank of the Cleveland Trust Company, at Bedford, of $50,000. All of the money was recovered. William Petries, a bookkeeper in the bank was probably fatally wounded and three citizens less seriously shot.

Four of the gang all of whom also are believed to have been wounded, escaped after the battle which occurred in a lumber yard and in which every Bedford citizen who could find a weapon participated.

STOCK REPORT

(By Associated Press)

New York, Oct. 22.—Alternate declines and recoveries attended the limited dealings of the morning in the stock market. Vanadium steel, general electric, hides and leather preferred, Wilson packing and international paper fell 1 to 2 points, but the list rallied when buying of the high priced oils was resumed. Shipments also recovered on a brisk demand for United fruit which rebounded almost 5 points. Coppers were steady despite another cut in the price of the metal. United States steel and related shares had no perceptible response to Chairman Gary's encouraging observations on the business outlook. Call money opened and renewed into next week at seven per cent and exchange on London was firm.

GOVERNOR COX IN BALTIMORE

Says League Enemies Are His Enemies. For Some Reservations.

FIGHT IS FOR PRINCIPLE

Democratic Candidate Says Coming
Election Is Potentially a Referendum On The Issue.

Baltimore, Oct. 22.—Near the spot in the Fifth Regiment Armory where Woodrow Wilson was nominated by the Democratic National Convention
eight years ago for President of the United States, Governor James M.
Cox, of Ohio, who aspires to be his successor, Wednesday night made a speech in which he made the ratification of the covenant of the League of Nations his keynote.

"Everyone who is against the League of Nations is against me," declared the presidential candidate with great emphasis. Later on he declared:
"There can be no doubt as to the result if I am elected. This is a referendum on the League of Nations,
and at the election the will of the people will have been expressed."

Governor Cox charged that a conspiracy to defeat the League of Nations was formed after President Wilson's return from Europe.

During his speech Governor Cox was "heckled" once on the League of Nations. Incidentally, Mr. Cox made an appeal for the re-election of Senator Smith. He left early Thursday morning on his campaign tour.

Joseph P. Tumulty, secretary to President Wilson, who occupied a seat on the platform and who later had a conference with Governor Cox, applauded these sentiments. So did five hundred other Democrats from Washington, mostly office holders, applaud the candidate. So did over 15,000
Maryland Democrats from every nook and corner of the city and state applaud him. The audience was about equally divided between men and women. The women were just as enthusiastic as were the men. A brass band in the gallery played patriotic airs, entertaining the audience for over an hour and a half before the speechmaking began. The doors of the armory were thrown open at 6:30 o'clock. Immediately there was an inrush of the waiting crowds in the streets. James W. Lewis, who had charge of the interior arrangements of the armory, and his force of assistants, were rushed to handle the crowd, and they performed their tasks well. The 8,000 chairs on the main floor were soon occupied. The gallery seats also quickly had tenants.

Crowd Cheers Candidate

A mighty roar went up when the great crowd, one of the largest of the candidate's travels, caught sight of Governor Cox, cheering, whistling and waving of banners and tiny American flags, which had been distributed for 10 minutes the demonstration rose and ebbed while the band played "Hail Hail, the Gang's All Here." "The Legionnaires sang "It's A Long, Long Trail," and the cheering continued for several minutes more.

Spectators occupied every seat on the main floor and in the balcony,
where some hung from the steel girders.

SILK STOCKINGS TO BRIBE VOTERS

New York Discovers Politicians
Are Using Pernicious
Methods.

New York, October 22.—"Silk stockings are being used to bribe women workers at the polls."

Like a thunderclap from a clear sky this momentous message slammed its way into the Sun office Thursday from the Honest Ballot Association, which functions every year about this time. Many dark deeds and intents on the part of politicians have been discovered by the Honest Ballot Association, but this is its crowning achievement—this discovery that the evil minded underminers of the sanctity of the ballot in our fair city have chosen a pair of silk stockings as the basis of bribery of women at the polls.

Bribery of its women watchers during the recent registration, continued
the communication from the Honest Ballot Association, "was attempted and in one case succeeded."

Where will it stop? If they can be reached by a pair of silk stockings,
what can be done with a box of silk lingerie, or a "distinctive frock" or a sable coat? Take it from the Honest Ballot Association, the beginning has been and reason totters at the chaos envisioned in contemplation of the developments.

EXPLAINED NEW ATTENDANCE LAW

Professor Shank Spoke at Meeting of Conewago
Teachers.

The third of the series of meetings of the teachers of Conewago township, was held recently in Sand Hill School house. S. E. Waltman, president of the association, presided.

Professor W. R. Shank, assistant Superintendent of the County schools, then addressed the meeting.
He complimented the teachers for their excellent work in their respective schools and these meetings, and defined the new compulsory attendance law. He stated that all pupils between the ages of 8 and 16 years must attend school and that the Board of Directors may grant a 70 per cent attendance to those needed
on the farms etc. from 12 to 16 years. He also stated that if a Board of Directors fails to enforce the said law, their State appropriation may be withheld. He quoted of but two cases in which the Boards were penalized for violation of the law.

Professor J. W. Thoman, of the McSherrytown schools gave an address on "The Needs and Wants of The Public Schools." He laid great emphasis on music as a factor in school work and read an extract from a daily paper, stating that the Department of Education had appointed an official whose business it will be to establish community singing and enforce music in the public schools, making Pennsylvania
a "singing State."

COX IN NEW JERSEY

Speaks in Capital City And at Princeton University.

Trenton, New Jersey, October 22.—
A one day campaign in New Jersey was opened here by Governor Cox today with a noon theater meeting at which he asked for a "mandate" of balance to "overturn the greatest conspiracy in all the ages." This he said was against world peace proposed under the League of Nations.

The league, Governor Cox said, was
"as inspired by God as much as the declaration of independence itself."

Governor Cox motored ten miles to Princeton accompanied by a long caravan of automobiles. At Princeton, Dr. Henry Van Dyke, former American minister to the Netherlands, presided.

HIGH RESTS SATURDAY

After routing Frederick by the score of 55-0 on Wednesday afternoon, the Gettysburg High team will take a rest on Saturday. This rest is not voluntary, however, as the locals had a game scheduled with Lancaster to be played on that day.
Lancaster, however, wanted to play the game on their own grounds and cancelled because Gettysburg preferred to play here.

The latest announcement by Coach Reynolds is to the effect that Shippenburg High will play here Saturday afternoon against the Reserves.
In all probability the Varsity will be used for part of the game for practice purposes.

HARDING TALKS OF HOME ISSUE

Republican Candidate Says First Duty Lies at Home.

TIME TO STOP WASTING

Points Out Where His Position Differs From Governor Cox. Says He Looks to Future.

Buffalo, N. Y., October 22.—Charging that the Democratic party had attempted to "blind" the voter to domestic issues by devoting its campaign energies to an already rejected foreign program, Senator Harding told a crowd of several thousands here last night that the first real duty of the nation in discharging its obligations to the world was to "put its own house in order."

In a world readjusting itself after the trials of war, said the Republican nominee, the United States could best lend its aid to distressed foreign nations by setting an example of steadfast democracy and equal opportunity. Tersely, he reviewed the program for domestic rehabilitation presented by him in his many campaign speeches, and declared the progressive thought of the country should turn to such a program rather than concern itself longer with the Versailles league covenant.

Making his second extended speech
of the day, the candidate spoke here in the Broadway Auditorium at a meeting which also was addressed by Judge Nathan L. Miller, the Republican nominee for governor. Earlier in the day, at a meeting in Rochester,
the Senator had stated again his position on the league and had challenged Democratic critics to show wherein he had been inconsistent.

The auditorium speech was the last of the campaign on Senator Harding's speaking schedule outside his home
state. Leaving late Thursday night, his special train will reach Marion today.

In his references to the league here
Thursday night the nominee said there was no difference between him and Governor Cox "in our realization that the American people desire to enter into some kind of an association of nations which will prevent war, and interweave all peoples with the bonds of peaceful co-operation."

Where They Differ

"But there are two marked differences between us," he continued.
"The first of these is to be found in the fact that my opponent is insisting upon the adoption of the unchanged Paris League of Nations. The Republican position is the exact opposite of that position. The American people, as well as the Senate of the United States, long ago rejected the President's plan which my opponent is now trying to keep alive. Even if my opponent were elected he would be unable to put his program into effect, and America would have to wait for many years, perhaps, before she could be united upon any policy."

ALL LABOR MAY WITHDRAW

(By Associated Press)

London, Oct. 22.—The miners conference of South Wales today asked the National Miners Federation to call a national conference to consider the withdrawal of all labor from the coal mines. The mines are being kept in order by specially assigned forces and their withdrawal would render the pits useless for a reduction of work.

OUTLAW KILLED IN WILD BATTLE

Two Hundred Shots Fired. Bank
Clerk Badly
Wounded.

Cleveland, O., October 22.—George "Jiggs" Loster, said to be under indictment in many states on charges of murder and robbery, is under arrest at a local hospital shot through the neck, as the result of a street battle at Bedford, 10 miles from here, late Thursday, which resulted in the death of one bandit, the serious wounding and capture of two others and the probable fatal shooting of a bank clerk. More than 200 shots were fired.

The battle was the culmination of one of the most spectacular bank robberies ever staged in this state, during which eight bandits held up the Bedford branch of the Cleveland Trust Company.

The dead man was identified by Bertillon experts as Albert Joyce, alias Johnson. William Petrie, a bank clerk, was the victim of a shotgun in the hands of a citizen, who had answered the burglar alarm and mistook him for one of the bandits as he emerged from the bank. Physicians say he is dying.

The robbery occurred just as the bank was closing. Six of the gang entered with drawn revolvers and commanded the five employees and three customers to the rear of the building. The employees were forced to lie on their faces and the customers were placed under guard in a room.

Seizing all the money in sight, said
to amount to $50,000, the bandits rushed into the street. Almost simultaneously George C. Flickinger, manager of the branch, touched the burglar alarm sounded in every downtown business house of Bedford.

one hundred men in the searching party armed with shot guns and rifles.

The supposed convicts were seen in the woods last night where they exchanged shots with officers.

American Legion in any manner possible Mr. Gardiner then drew forth from a hat the winning name—Otho Adams—of the lamp chance contest conducted by the local post.

Three rousing cheers and a speech of thanks by Mr. Gardiner who termed Gettysburg "the finest town of its size in the United States" and the exhibition came to a close.

At 3:30 o'clock in the afternoon Mr. Gardiner made his first climb which, although wonderful, was not as spectacular as the night performance given an added touch by the spotlight from the fire truck.

Every one of the vast crowd which viewed morning and evening exhibitions were satisfied that they had seen a super-man in action and that the story told of the "Human Fly's" ascent of the forty one story Singer building in New York City was not a myth.

"When I saw you stop as you reached the cornice of the building," said an Adams county resident, "I said to myself, 'There's where he meets his Waterloo.' But you actually climbed over that cornice without the slightest difficulty. It is marvelous indeed."

Those words expressed the general opinion of the entire crowd.

Cordial Reception

Gettysburg by its cordial hospitality made a splendid impression on Mr. Gardiner, who has been the guest of hundreds of organizations throughout the country. The general disposition and gentlemanly manner of the "Human Fly" likewise won him hundreds of friends during his forty eight hour visit here. He left the town with the best wishes of the American Legion post which benefited so greatly financially by his two exhibitions.

ment installed attracted most attention. Directors say some of the instruments, including the large x-ray machine, which were ordered some time ago, have not yet arrived and that fact is the main obstacle in opening the hospital for patients now.

Supply Room Filled

Much interest also centered in the supply room, main kitchen and heating plant in the basement. There is nothing lacking in this branch of the equipment. On every shelf and in every bin are evidences of the generosity of the county people. Thursday's visitation to the hospital also confirmed the belief many times expressed that the efforts to establish a hospital in Gettysburg for the convenience of the residents of the county is the most popular movement ever undertaken.

Despite delays that could not have been overcome, the opening day is not far off and the county will soon possess one of the most modern institutions of its kind anywhere.

The members of the Gettysburg branch of the auxiliary, who explained the purpose of the rooms and by what organizations they would be maintained were Mrs. Clyde Stover, chairman of the auxiliary, Mrs. William Hersh, Miss Harriet Krauth, Miss Nina Storrick, Mrs. A. B. Plank, Miss Annie Diehl, of town; Mrs. D. D. Smith and Mrs. Livelsperger, McSherrytown; Miss Irene Wolf, Gardners, and Mrs. W. A. Miller and Miss Myrtle Shriver, Miss Flora Rudkin, Mrs. Elsie Lewars, Mrs. Harry Cunningham and Mrs. Donald McPherson. Mrs. Wm. Arch McClean, county chairman of the food collection, and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Slonaker, warden and matron of the hospital were also on duty.

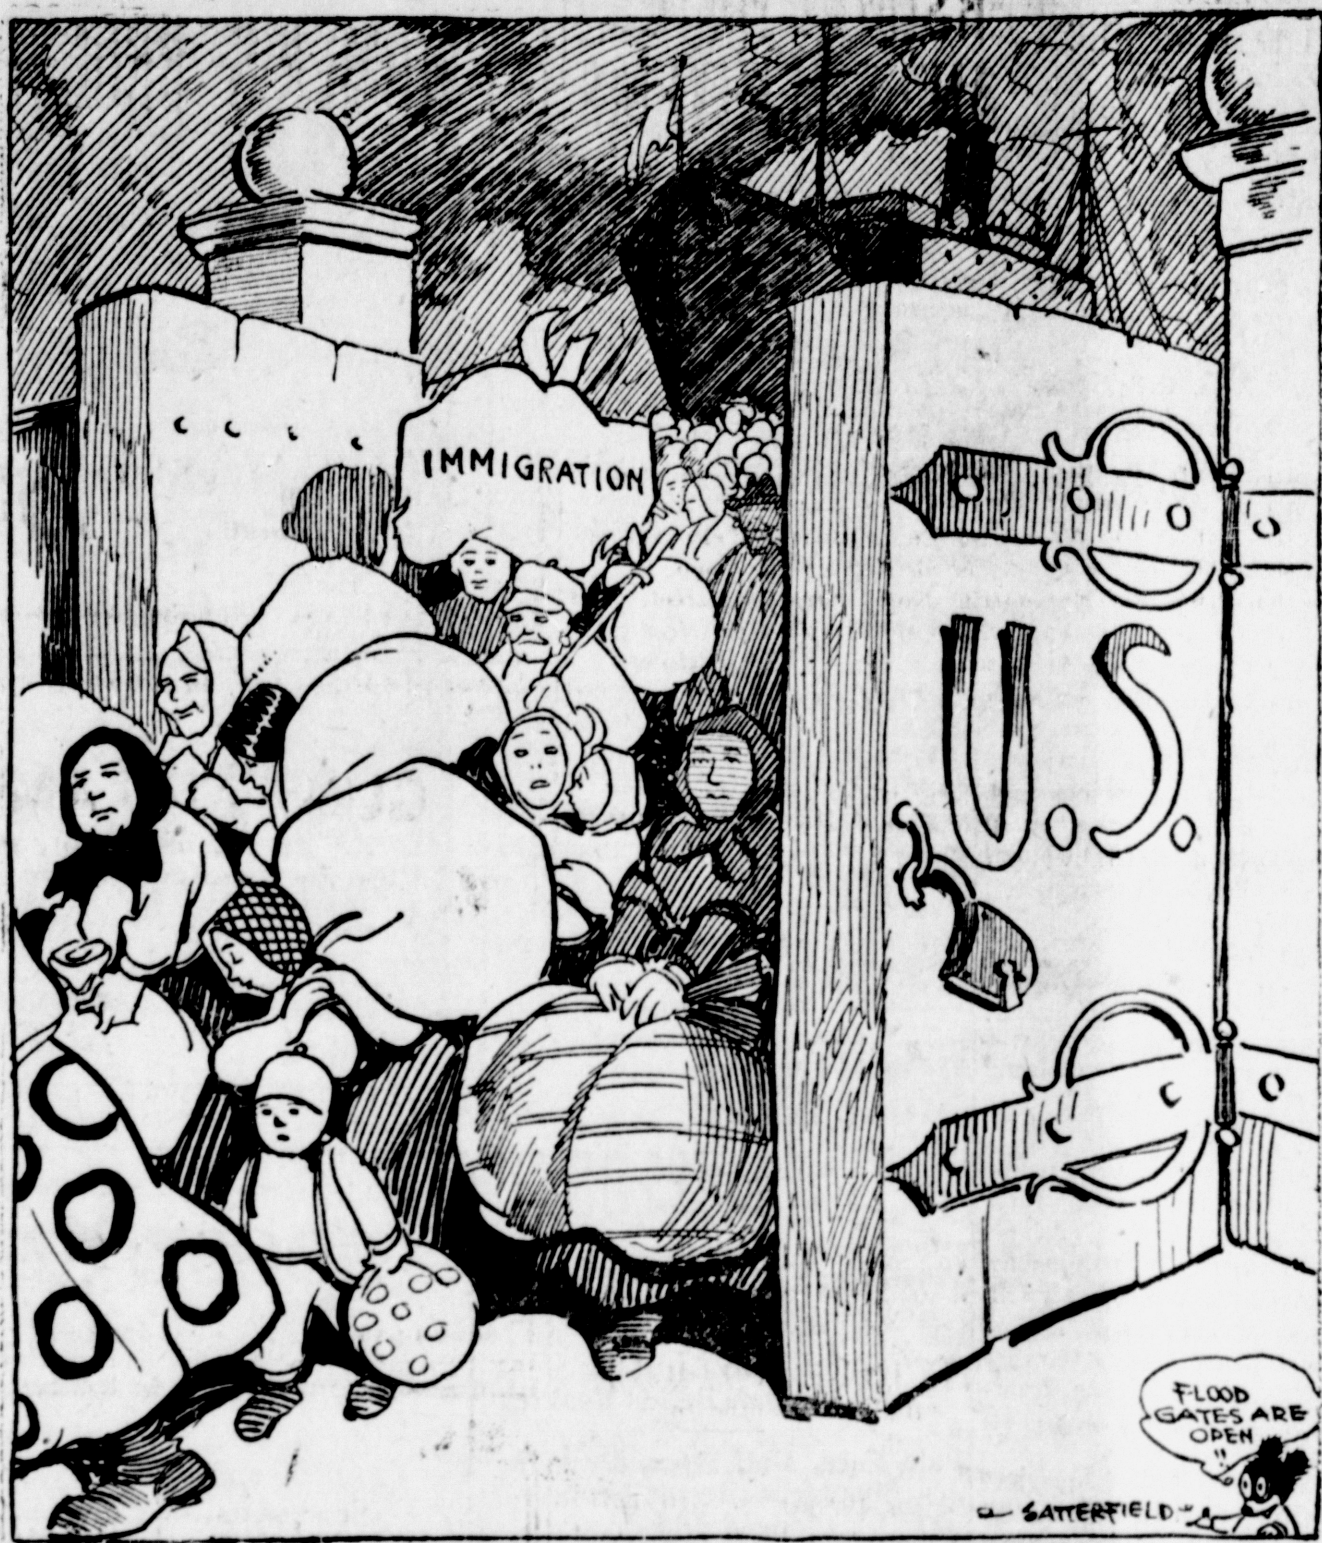

Among the thousands of people from all parts of the county were a number of physicians, including Dr. W. E. Wolf, Arendtsville; Dr. J. L. Sheets, New Oxford; Dr. T. C. Miller, Abbottstown, and Dr. H. E. Gettler, Littlestown.

WHISKY RUNNERS FINED

Three whisky runners, J. R. O'Boyle, his brother, F. A. O'Boyle, and William Hopkins, all of Scranton, were fined $100 each in federal court at Scranton this week.

J. R. O'Boyle and Hopkins were caught in Chambersburg last May at the rooming house of Charles Weldon after the house had been raided by police. At that time F. A. O'Boyle escaped in the automobile, which was to have been used to transport the liquor.

It developed that when he was escaping he threw twenty gallons of the booze into a field. When he returned he could not find the place, as he had thrown it away hurriedly in his flight by night.

ALBRIGHT HERE WITH FINE RECORD

Benfer Has Put His College Back On Football Map.

Five years ago the Albright College team was feared by every institution in the state because of the presence of a marvelous athlete—Haps Benfer. After the graduation of Benfer the athletic standing of Albright sank perceptibly and for a quartette of seasons the teams from that college offered little resistance against their rivals, Bucknell, Dickinson, Franklin and Marshall and Gettysburg.

This year, however, finds Albright re-established on the football map as the direct results of that same man who starred in their line up in former years. Haps Benfer is the present coach of the Albright football team and this is their record to date:

Albright 6—Dickinson 0. Albright 13—Muhlenburg 14. Albright 41—Drexel Institute 0.

This team with a record of two victories, including Dickinson, and a one point loss to Muhlenburg is the eleven to face Gettysburg here Saturday afternoon at 2:45 o'clock.

Coaches Bill Wood and Doyle Leathers have their team primed for a hard game and a 14-0 victory over Albright, always a trouble maker for Gettysburg, will be considered a splendid showing.

ACADEMY TO WAYNESBORO

Gettysburg Academy will play their second game of the season Saturday afternoon when they journey to Waynesboro to meet the High School team of that city.

COMING EVENTS

Oct. 23—Albright College vs. Gettysburg College.
Oct. 30—Dickinson College vs. Gettysburg College.
Oct. 30—Chambersburg High vs. Gettysburg High.

Elcar Experience
covers 12 years of fine automobile development. It is made by the same folks who made the famous ELKHART Carriages and Vehicles for 35 years.

Cold type and illustration cannot do justice to the practical all around ability of the ELCAR—the car of Beauty, Performance, Power, Speed, Endurance, Dependability, Serviceability, Comfort.

Look over these specifications and then test the car yourself:
4-cylinder model, 6-cylinder model, Delco starting, lighting and ignition, Wilcox batteries, Stromberg carburetors, Borg & Beck clutch, Salisbury rear (double-strength) axle, Boyce moto-meter, 116 inch wheel base.

Get the rest of the story from the catalogue we have for you.

"Most Reasonably Priced Fine Car Ever Made"
Stop in for a demonstration any time.

Before accepting the agency for the ELCAR, I made a visit to the factory last week and found a plant covering an entire city block, a four story building with a floor space of 300,000 square feet. Managed by men whose heads have grown gray in the carriage and motor car industry, with a strong force of younger engineers and mechanics, all pulling together with but one end in view; that is, to turn out the best car for the least money.

Hence this fine TAILOR MADE CAR.
The following are the new prices handed me while at the factory:

	Fours	Sixes
5 Passenger Touring	$1395.00	$1695.00
4 Passenger sportster	1395.00	1695.00
5 Passenger Sedan	2095.00	2395.00
3 Passenger Coupe	1995.00	2295.00

These prices are delivered.

'HOW WELL YOU LOOK!'

When Your Blood is Rich and Red People Notice Your Good Health

Pepto-Mangan Builds Health

Pale Face, Dull Eyes, Drooping Shoulders, Result From Clogged Blood.

If your blood is in bad shape it shows up in your looks and feeling.

When your blood is rich with red corpuscles your color is better—your lips are red, eyes wide open and bright; your good feeling shows in your actions.

Common sense will tell you that if weak, thin blood makes you look lifeless, it lowers your vitality.

If your vitality is low you have little power to resist disease germs. Men, women and children with rich, red blood are able to fight off the germs which bring severe illness.

When you feel run down and weak, with no appetite and no ambition, take Pepto-Mangan for awhile. It is a great blood building tonic. You should begin to feel better within a few days.

Pepto-Mangan is put up in both liquid and tablet form. Take either kind you prefer, because they have the same medicinal value. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan—"Gude's." The full name, "Gude's Pepto-Mangan," should be on the package.

Winter Weather will Soon be Here

Protect yourselves from the icy blasts by having good tight windows and doors.

More cold air creeps in around loose windows and doors than from any other source. Coal is high and scarce and by having your windows and doors well protected, you can reduce your coal expense to a minimum. Let Strausbaugh's Mill make window sashes for you that will fit snugly.

Enclose Your Porches

and add an extra room to your house. This will protect the entire portion of your house that is covered by the porch. In addition to that it is very easily heated, especially on sunny days, as the heat from the sun is usually enough in itself to make the ENCLOSED PORCH comfortable.

The ENCLOSED PORCH should be as much a part of your house as an open porch or any room, and can be made so by a very small additional cost. It also adds to the exterior appearance of the home. A real service to the prospective house builder, especially to those of modest means, who have not always been able to gratify their good taste, goes with the use of enclosed porches. This can be made to harmonize with all the other exterior wood work finish of your house.

Let us quote you prices on this work, and acquaint you with the quality and kinds of lumber we use. We are equipped to finish products of quality that will satisfy the most exacting purchaser.

D. Edw. Long for State Senator

To the Voters of the Adams-Franklin Senatorial District

Chambersburg, Pa., Aug. 16, 1920.

Vote for
"Ed" Long

We, the undersigned citizens, taxpayers and voters of Franklin County, strongly endorse D. Edw. Long for State Senator from the 33rd Senatorial District, and earnestly commend him to the voters of this district, irrespective of political affiliations, as a man well fitted for the office of State Senator for the following reasons:

He is a trained man—born and raised on a farm, attended the public school, graduated at the Cumberland Valley State Normal School, taught at Bel Air Academy, Maryland, took a special classical course and graduated at the Dickinson School of Law.

He has had wide business experience—President of the Public Opinion Company, Treasurer of the Chambersburg Ice & Cold Storage Company, a Director of the Chambersburg Trust Company, President of the Farmers & Breeders Association of Franklin County, owner and operator of a farm and orchard and engaged in the active practice of law for twenty years.

He has demonstrated his worth as a public official—his two terms as District Attorney of Franklin County were marked by initiative and fearlessness.

He is interested in the general welfare of his home community—an active church member, and a worker in the Chamber of Commerce and Chautauqua Association of Chambersburg.

We have known "Ed" Long well for years, have always found him absolutely honest and feel confident that he will use his training and experience impartially and effectively for the best interests of the residents of the 33rd district of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Very sincerely,

WEBER
BUILT RIGHT SINCE 1845

The Best in Wagon Construction

WEBER WAGONS represent the best in up-to-the-minute wagon construction. Match them for light running qualities if you can.

The swivel-reach coupling allows the wheels to run flat on the tires over obstructions, in ruts, over plowed ground, on side hills—in fact, practically any old place, under any load conditions within the capacity of the wagon and overcomes binding and friction between the wheel box and the skien.

The success of the Weber is due largely to the progressive brain power, coupled with the three-quarters of a century of wagon-building experience, that has kept it abreast of the times. The Weber meets all road and all load requirements. Farmers and lumbermen using Weber wagons claim they are the strongest and lightest running wagons they have ever used.

Come in when you are in town and look over the Weber we have waiting for your inspection. We will help you compare the Weber with any wagon you name, at any time and at any public place you may suggest. We think it's worth about $23.65 more than any wagon not containing the Weber features such as the swivel-reach coupling, fifth wheel, extended stakes, etc. We would like to know what you think about it. Make your own comparison and rely on your own judgment. By taking the price of the Weber as a basis you can best judge values correctly. Weber wagons are built to be good wagons and you can't find a guarantee for quality that is better for the farmer to have than the IHC.

There will be SPECIAL PRICES FOR FARMERS' DAY which will continue for THREE DAYS, 21-22 & 23—There will be lowered prices to follow any anticipated price changes that may be made during the season. Buy what you want and when you want it HERE. Cannot name half the price concessions in the limit of our AD—but come prepared to find some great price changes all through the store.

In addition to the prizes we offer for exhibits in our store, as here given, we have Souvenirs of articles that will last and be of use—and above all—some Price Surprises all over our store that will be worth while and that will wipe out of your mind that every desire must be resisted because prices seemed extravagant. Practically everything that the new season is calling for can be bought at a concession from former market prices—And further we are fully stocked, having kept up assortments—and wherein prices paid have since been reduced in the market we have followed and are taking our loss; besides having taken advantage of every price reduction in restocking so that our assortments are fully as complete, and in most instances more so

EVERYBODY NOTICE

S. S. W. Hammers, in the fall of sugar and drygoods lost $150.00.

We have now put sugar to 14 cts. per lb. A farmer stopped at our store and swore he could get sugar at Gettysburg for 13 cts. He told us where to go with our sugar, but we did not go. When he returned his five pounds of sugar at 13 cts., rice, coffee and salmon cost him $3.94. The same goods at our store with five pounds of sugar at 14 cts. would have cost him $2.78. He would have saved $1.16 to his five pounds of 13 cent sugar it would have cost him 36 cents per pound. Let the people watch these pricecutters. We sell things close.

Clothes Quality is the Style

Ordinarily when you speak of style, you think of the details of designing, the way the suit is cut, the way the pockets are placed, the sleeves and collar shape, and all that.

But style ought to be more than that, or it won't last. That's why we have been so particular to select SUITS and OVERCOATS that measured up to the most exacting standards of tailoring and durability. In that way you get more than style you get style that endures; you get economy.
